Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Matthew 7:7-11

1. When do you find yourself saying, "If only I had THAT, then I'd be okay?" What is your "that?"
2. Has having "that" ever completely ended all anxiety or worry in your life? Why do you think that is?
3. Why might God decline your numerous requests to have "that?" Why might He grant your requests?
4. Have you ever felt like God owed you something or was wrong for not giving you something? When?
5. Have you ever found peace after God declined a request of yours? How?
6. Why should we first (and mostly) ask God to give us more of Himself, and secondarily ask for everything else?
