1. How do you typically begin your prayers?
2. What benefits might you experience if you began your prayers by focusing on God instead of focusing on your problems?
3. Is hearing that "God knows what you need" a comfort or a frustration? Why?
4. When have you been at peace to receive whatever God thought best to give you?
5. When have you disagreed with what God gave you? Did you later come to agree or are you still at odds with God's wisdom?
6. When it comes to temptation, what helps you follow God's lead?
7. What link have you noticed between granting forgiveness to those who have hurt you and receiving God's forgiveness?
8. What has helped you grant forgiveness to someone who has hurt you?
