Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Nehemiah 4

1. What comes more easily for you, prayer or action? Why do you think that is?
2. What is an example of an action you took in the face of opposition? Is there any opposition you feel like you are currently facing? If so, what action might you be able to take?
3. Have you felt tension between trusting God to provide a victory and the need to take action yourself? How do you reconcile these?
4. Do you have someone who supports and encourages you? If so, what are some ways in which they have supported you?
5. Would you consider yourself a natural encourager? Why or why not?
6. Who is a person or group in your life who needs your encouragement? Have you made efforts to offer it?
7. Has there ever been in a time in your life where you strongly desired vengeance? What ultimately happened with your feelings?
8. What's the difference between taking action against your opposition and taking vengeance on your opposition?
