Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Nehemiah 9:38-10:39

1. What different types of covenants do people make today? Why?
2. How did the people in Nehemiah 10 view making a covenant with God? How did they show their sincerity?
3. Why do our motives matter in our commitments to God? What is the proper motive for obeying God? How should we evaluate whether or not our motives are pure?
4. Why did God expect His people to be separate from the peoples around them? Does God have that same expectation of His people today?
5. What are the reasons a Christ-follower should financially support the work of ministry through a local church?
6. What is the main point of the specific commitments the people of Israel were making in Nehemiah 10?
7. In what ways has God kept His covenant commitment to you?
8. What covenant do you have with God? What response have you committed yourself to make, if any? Where do grace and the Holy Spirit fit into this relationship? Where does forgiveness fit?
