Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Micah 4:2-8, 11-13

1. When do people talk about justice or wrongs needing to be set right?
2. What would you be willing to say in those conversations to point people to their need for Jesus?
3. What are some ways in which we could try to point people to their need for Jesus that would actually be counterproductive? In other words, what shouldn't we say or ask when people are talking about justice?
4. How does the world set wrongs right, and does it really set them right?
5. If people really believed morality was truly relative, would they ever be very upset about injustice? Why or why not?
6. What does the world think Christians believe about justice?
