Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Isaiah 25:6-9

1. When have you seen others act either comfortable or uncomfortable when they face their own mortality? What do you think makes the difference?
2. Do you more often consider death an enemy that can be defeated or an inevitable part of life? Why?
3. If there were no death, how would you live your life differently?
4. If you identify as a Christian and understand death is/will be defeated, would it make sense to change some of the ways you are living? If so, what makes sense to change?
5. The resurrection of Jesus shows the eternity God has for us isn't a disembodied spiritual existence, but a physical one. What questions do you have about this? Do you find it appealing or unappealing?
6. How would you describe what it is like to have "the same spirit in you that rose Jesus from the grave" (Romans 8:11) to someone who isn't a Christian?
7. What does this Spirit do in us? How does He do it? What does it feel like?
