

---

Date: April 10, 2022

Series: A Better Story

Message: Self Worth

Scripture: Luke 19:1-10

---

The emptiness of the world: _____

The offer of Jesus: _____

The effect of that offer: _____

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Luke 19:1-10

1. Where do you tend to look for significance, satisfaction, or security outside of Christ?
2. How do you feel when what you trust to give you significance, satisfaction, or security comes up short?
3. What would you be willing to say during those moments of weakness to point people to their need for Jesus?
4. What are some ways in which we could try to point people to their need for Jesus during our moments of weakness that would be counterproductive? In other words, what shouldn't we say?
5. Can we still point to the wholeness Christ offers if we aren't currently experiencing it ourselves? How?
6. When have you noticed other people feeling or acting insecure?
7. Is it wise or unwise to point people to their need for Christ when something in this world has failed to provide them with significance, satisfaction, or security? Why or why not?