Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Jonah 4:1-11

1. When have you felt like you mattered to God? When have you felt like you didn't? How does the story of Jonah and Nineveh inform those feelings?
2. When have you felt tension between showing people that they matter and (at the same time) holding fast to what is true?
3. Which do you believe is more natural for you: showing people they matter or standing for truth?
4. Do you believe God is more pleased with Jonah or the Ninevites? Or both/neither? Why?
5. Is there any group you believe the world would be better without? Who? What does God believe about that group?
6. How does the Gospel prove that God cares about both people and truth?
