Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Jeremiah 25

1. What do you find comforting about God's judgment?
2. What do you find unsettling about God's judgment?
3. Would you rather God judge all the wickedness in the world or ignore all of it? Why?
4. Do you typically view God as too patient with the evil in the world or too wrathful? Why?
5. What does it reveal about our hearts that we often want God to judge those who have hurt us while also wanting God to be patient with us when we've hurt others?
6. Since God is willing to stand in our place and take our penalty, how should we react to the evil in the world? To the evil that has happened to us?
7. If you really believed that you were totally free from all condemnation and shame because of what Jesus did on the cross, would anything change in your life, attitude, defensiveness, transparency, treatment of others? If so, what?
