Series: God Speaks Scripture: Zephaniah 3:8-20

The approaching wrath:

Its cause:

The largest twist in Scripture:

1. Who has made you feel unequivocally accepted and wanted? What did they do to make you feel that way?
2. Have you ever deserved total rejection but received praise instead? How did you respond?
3. How did total acceptance change your behavior or performance going forward, if at all? Was it more or less effective in changing your behavior than receiving a punishment for your actions? Why do you think that is?
4. In what ways have you seen other people define their own right and wrong instead of listening to God? What was the result? In what ways are you likely to do the same?
5. When you are in the depths of despair because of the consequences of your poor choices, what helps you to remember that God is singing in delight over you?
