Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Zechariah 9:1-12

1. Which causes you stress or anxiety most often: lack of wealth, lack of wisdom, or lack of quality world leaders? What does your anxiety/stress reveal about where you place your hope?
2. In what ways have you looked for The One who can make it all okay? A relationship? A job opportunity? A leader? Someone/something else? Was your hope fulfilled in a lasting way?
3. Why do you think the human heart continues to long for The One who can make it all okay when we've been let down so many times?
4. In what ways has Jesus fulfilled all of your hopes? In what ways has He yet to fulfill all of them?
5. What can cause us to doubt that Jesus will eventually fulfill all of our hopes beyond what we can imagine? How can the cross help us with our doubts?
