Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Genesis 1:26-28

1. What types of people do we typically elevate as most valuable? What does that tell us about where we believe human worth comes from?
2. When do you most often feel your immense worth and value?
3. In what ways have circumstances or people made you doubt your worth?
4. In what ways do we (either as a culture or as individuals) treat others as if they have less dignity and worth?
5. How should (and shouldn't) our understanding of our sin influence our understanding of our worth?
6. What does "renewed in the knowledge of the image of the Creator" (Colossians 3:10) mean? How is it done?
