Esther

SOVEREIGNTY IN SILENCE

Esther 2:1-18

¹ Later when King Xerxes' fury had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her.

² Then the king's personal attendants proposed,
“Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins
for the king.”

Esther

³ Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful young women into the harem at the citadel of Susa.

Esther

Esther 2:1-18

Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them.

⁴ Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

Esther 2:1-18

⁵ Now there was in the citadel of Susa
a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin,
named Mordecai

Esther 2:1-18

⁷ Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother.

Esther

Esther 2:1-18

This young woman, who was also known as Esther, had a lovely figure and was beautiful. Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

⁸ When the king's order and edict had been proclaimed, many young women were brought to the citadel of Susa and put under the care of Hegai.

Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem.

⁹ She pleased him and won his favor. Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food and moved her into the best place in the harem.

Esther

SOVEREIGNTY IN SILENCE

Esther 2:1-18

¹⁰ Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.

Esther

SOVEREIGNTY IN SILENCE

Esther 2:1-18

¹¹ Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

Esther

Esther 2:1-18

¹² Before a young woman's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women,

six months with oil of myrrh
and six with perfumes and cosmetics.

Esther

¹³ And this is how she would go to the king:
Anything she wanted was given to her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

Esther

Esther 2:1-18

¹⁴ In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines.

Esther

SOVEREIGNTY IN SILENCE

Esther 2:1-18

She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.

Esther

Esther 2:1-18

¹⁵ When the turn came for Esther to go to the king, she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested.

And Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.

¹⁶ She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, in the seventh year of his reign.

¹⁷ Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins.

So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

¹⁸ And the king gave a great banquet,
Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials.

He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.
