Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Proverbs 3:1-12

1. What parts of Austin's story relate to your own?
2. Looking back over your life, can you identify times when you relied on your own understanding versus trusting God's plan for you?
3. Did you know it at the time? What made it obvious later?
4. How can you practically let go of your own understanding and "leave the rest to God?"
5. Is there anything happening in your life today that you don't know if you're relying on your own understanding versus trusting in God? If so, what?
6. When have you been "wise in your own eyes?" What was the result?
7. If you realize you are being "wise in your own eyes," how can you stop?
8. In what ways do you tie love and faithfulness around your neck? In what ways do you struggle to do so?
9. How do we know if God is disciplining us versus the random happenstance of life? In the Christian understanding, is there any such thing as "random?"
