The love we all need:

What if we don't have it:

What if we do:

Where we find such love:

What it does for our relationships:

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1 John 4:7-21

1. When have you been most confident that another person or a group totally accepted you? What effect did it have on you?
2. When have you been uncertain if you were accepted by another person or group? What effect did it have on you?
3. What effect do you think it would have on the world if each person were totally confident that they were fully known and fully loved?
4. Is it possible for anyone (other than Jesus) to know us fully, accept us fully, and love us fully—at all times, even in our worst failures—without a whiff of rejection? Why or why not?
5. Whom do you attempt to love without any conditions? What do you do when you fall short of loving that person like that?
6. Whom do you know that needs more assurance of acceptance? How can you help?
