

---

Date: March 16, 2025 Message: Comfort, Comfort, and More Comfort
Series: The Upper Room Scripture: John 14:12-31

---

Jesus' first comfort:

Jesus' second comfort:

Three traits of the Holy Spirit:

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

Jesus' third comfort:

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

John 14:12-31

1. What can we learn about the heart of Jesus from how He spends His final private moments with His disciples offering them comfort?
2. Do you most often envision Jesus offering you comfort or criticisms? Why? What difference might it make if you envisioned Him one way versus the other?
3. When have you experienced Jesus as your advocate? What comfort did it bring?
4. When have you experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit? How would you describe Him?
5. When has the Holy Spirit brought to your mind what Jesus has done on your behalf or something that He taught?
6. Talk about how living within Jesus' commands versus living outside of His commands influences our quality of life. Why does living outside of His commands sometimes seem so attractive?
7. What has the Holy Spirit used to guide you to follow Him more closely?