Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Luke 24:1-12

1. When have you needed to bear a cost in order to restore someone or something from brokenness? Examples: healing organizational or relational dysfunction, rebuilding homes after a disaster, cleansing a corrupt system, etc.
2. What was the cost? Time? Emotions? Physical labor?
3. Must there always be a cost whenever we work to make right what has gone wrong? Why or why not?
4. Think of the cost Jesus must have paid to restore all of the brokenness in the entire history of the world. What lessons can we learn from His willingness to pay that high of a cost?
5. What are ways that we act/feel/think as if Jesus really paid what was necessary to heal every wound, resurrect every death, right every wrong, and restore everything that has ever been broken?
6. What are ways that we act/feel/think as if it isn't true?
7. What might change about the world if Christians always behaved and interacted with others with total confidence in our perfect future?
