Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Acts 20:22-24

The process of responding to God's call:

- 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 - 4.
1. What are some examples from Scripture of someone responding to a God-given prompting? What stands out to you about these stories?
 2. Have you ever sensed a prompting from God like Paul did in today's Bible passage? If so, when, and what was your response to it?
 3. What were some of the reasons given by the three men in Luke 9:57-62 about why they were unwilling to respond to God's call? What do Jesus' responses to these men reveal about what it really means to be his follower?
 4. What is something you sense God wants you to do that you keep putting off? Why?
 5. Why is a person's call to salvation the single most important calling of all when it comes to discerning God's prompting to make other decisions in life?
 6. If you encounter difficulty after obediently responding to God's prompting, does that mean that you didn't correctly hear from God? Why or why not?
 7. Why doesn't God lay out His entire plan for us all at one time?
 8. Based on what we see throughout Scripture, what is always the main purpose of obedience to God? Why does the purpose behind our obedience matter?
