Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Ruth 1:1-21

1. When has a relationship helped you deal with a difficult season? What did the person do that was helpful?
2. When has someone's selflessness toward you changed your perspective, your decisions, or the direction of your entire life?
3. When have you seen someone embrace Christianity because of the selflessness of someone else?
4. What do you believe is more important in our evangelistic efforts? Words or actions? Are both equally important? Is it always the same?
5. Naomi felt "empty" because she wasn't measuring up to her culture's expectations. What expectations does our culture place on people that can make them feel empty? When have you felt this way? How can the Gospel help?
