Isaiah 6:8

1. In what way was Caspar's story encouraging to you? Challenging?
2. Discuss Isaiah's reaction ("woe to me, I am ruined" (Isa 6:5)) to seeing the Lord high and lifted up. Is this a necessary step that must proceed being sent by the Lord? Why or why not?
3. When has an opportunity arisen that you felt compelled to take? What made it different from other opportunities that you had a chance to take? What happened?
4. When God calls us to something, is it always pleasant and comfortable? Why might He lead us somewhere that isn't?
5. How have you benefited from others answering God's call upon their lives? How might their "stepping out in faith" influence your own?
6. What next step do you believe God has placed before you today? How can this group help you take it?
