Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Matthew 9:18-22

1. What encouraged or challenged you most from Dustin's story?
2. What do you think people often misunderstand about faith and healing?
3. How can we continue trusting God when healing does not come in the way or timing we hope for?
4. What difference does it make if we consider miracles random displays of power versus steps toward God's plan to restore everything that is broken?
5. In Matthew 22:18-22, what kinds of brokenness do you see Jesus addressing in this passage besides physical illness or death?
6. Can you think of examples where God has restored something broken in your life, even if it wasn't through a physical healing?
7. What areas of brokenness in the world make you long for Christ's final restoration?
8. How does the promise of a future without sickness, pain, and death affect the way you face current struggles?
