Questions for Reflection and Discussion

Haggai 1:5,7, Psalm 45:1

1. What encouraged or challenged you most from Paul's story?
2. Have you ever had an experience in your life where you didn't see it at the time, but as you looked back you saw God's fingerprints along the way?
3. For Paul, God was saying, "Think carefully about how you are living!" Are you doing what God wants you to do?
4. In what area(s) of your life do you need to give careful thought to your ways?
5. How is God's way different from yours?
6. What things do you need to change to truly obey Him?
7. To follow His way requires a heart and passion for Him. What is the condition of your heart? Where does your passion lie?
